

Leslie H. C. Chen

Background

Graduated from Cornell University with a Bachelor degree of Architecture & Urban Studies, Master degree of Landscape Architecture, Mr. Leslie Chen is currently Deputy Head of Department of Architecture, Associate Professor, and Director of Master of Landscape Architecture Programme. Since Year 2004, he was elected to be President of the Hong Kong Institute of Landscape Architects (HKILA). Besides his hard work on teaching, design and research, he is dedicated to promote Landscape Architectural Professional development and the social responsibilities of Landscape Architects in Hong Kong. He also appointed to serve in several governmental and quasi-governmental advisory committees, providing professional insights for policy making, quality designed landscapes, and other development related issues.